ABOUT THE STATE.

Items of Interest Gleaned from Our Exchanges.

Maj. Henry W. Hovey, of Northfield, has gone on a trip to New York and Pennsylvania. He expects to be gone about ten days. Before returning he will visit his aged father in Philadelphia, his father having been in poor health the past year.

The relatives and friends of Mr. and Mrs. David Baker met at their home in West Glover October 24 to celebrate their golden wedding anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. Baker have eight children living; one daughter, Mrs. Newton Lewis, came from Dakota to attend the celebration. The couple were presented $70, more than half of it being in gold.

L. Daponti, one of the machine room men at the Metal Edge Box factory at Readsboro, was seriously burned recently in undertaking to fill a torch lamp while it was burning. The oil took fire and Daponti's clothes ignited. He was burned from the upper part of the chest down to his knees, but it is thought he will recover.

Lieut.-Col. George A. Dodd, 10th U. S. Cav., well known as Captain Dodd of the Third Cavalry at Fort Ethan Allen will be relieved from recruiting duty at Philadelphia, Pa., Wednesday and will at once leave with his family on a two months' leave of absence with permission to apply for a month's extension. He will go to Europe.

Miss Everts, of Windsor, found blossoming in her garden October 21 twenty-four different kinds of flowers as follows: Mignonette, sweet alyssum, snapdragon, stock, nasturtiums, cosmos, wallflower, anemone, poppy, sweet peas, geraniums, rose, sunflower, larkspur, chrysanthemums, carnations, calendula, hollyhocks, phlox, spirea, morning glory, gaillardia.

Mrs. Mary C. D. Sargent, of Chester, who celebrated her 96th birthday October 19 at the home of her daughter and grandchildren, despite her advanced age is possessed with remarkable vigor and energy, passing much of her time doing paintings for her friends and acquaintances. She also finds time to be fully conversant with the events of the day. Her memory is very good.

Lieut.-Col. Daniel C. Pearson, 7th U. S. Cav., who was in command at Fort Ethan Allen during the station there of the Second Cavalry, has, on his own request, been placed on the retired list after forty years' service. He has been ordered from duty to his home in Boston. Colonel Pearson was graduated from the military academy in 1870 and served with the Second Cavalry from that time until last year, when he received his promotion to the Seventh Cavalry, at that time being on duty with the Second Cavalry in the Philippines. Most of his life has been passed at Western posts. In 1876 he participated in the Big Horn and Yellowstone expeditions.

SHIRT IN COLD STORAGE.

Family Thought It a Shank of Venison, However.

Burlington, Nov. 1.—A prominent Burlington business man left this city last week for a trip through the state, and upon departing remarked to his family that he would probably send some venison home before his return. When a few days had passed, an express package came to the family, who supposed it to be the coveted venison and the package was promptly put in cold storage.

Meanwhile the head of the house made his tour of the state and as he forgot his night shirt in one of the towns visited he telephoned to the hotel where he left it, giving directions to have the shirt expressed to Burlington. This was accordingly done. Upon his return home the family greeted him with a warm and of the heartiest, and it was explained that the venison had been kept for the homecoming feast. The remark was not fully comprehended, but matters were cleared up somewhat when the parcel in the refrigerator was undeveloped and the venison so jealously guarded was found to be none other than the forgotten night shirt, which had been kept in cold storage for three days.

Foot Crushed by Engine.

Monday morning Patrick Murphy, a call boy, while attempting to board an engine in the Grand Trunk railroad yard, at Island Pond, missed his footing and fell under the wheels, one foot being crushed and the toes cut off.

Problem Floored Him.

If a man and a half can eat a squab and a half in an hour and a half for a day and a half at a time and a half, how long will it take the dog to tree the coon?

For a long time the pale, dejected appearing young man sat and studied and studied; then he wearily lifted his head and spoke to the friend who sat near him.

"Alas! I cannot find it," he said.

"Cannot find what?"

"The answer to this problem."

"You bet you can't!"

"Why not?"

"Because there is no answer to it."

"But I found it in the paper."

"Well, the editor will have to answer for the paper, but nobody will answer the problem. And why do you waste what ought to be gray matter on it? Honestly, now, do you give a whoop whether the dog trees the coon or not?"

"No, but—well, you see, I—"

"You bet you don't, and neither do some thousands of other simpletons who waste their time over similar conundrums care how old is Ann or why a hen is, or what is the solution of any other problem that appears through the drool of imbecility to the drive of insanity. And yet these thousands and tens of thousands continue their childish solutions of the unsolvable, while the world has valuable work that needs human hands and brains for the doing. Go to! If you have a mind, use it where a mind should be used; if you have not, don't play with its imitation."

"Well, I"—began the pale, dejected appearing young man; but then he threw the problem in the waste-basket and said no more.—San Francisco Chronicle.

SHOT FOR DEER.

William Green Killed in the Woods at Perham, Me.

Presque Isle, Me., Nov. 1.—A coroner has been called to investigate the fatal shooting of William Green, aged 26, by a cousin, Leonard Green, while the two, with the former's brother, were hunting deer in the woods outside Perham.

The three men, who are residents of Perham, had become separated, when suddenly Leonard thought he heard or saw a deer, and, leveling his rifle, fired, killing his cousin, almost instantly. The shot passed through the heart.

It is reported as a coincidence that about two years ago, while hunting a brother of William Green accidentally killed a brother of Leonard Green.

$5,000,000 MORE DEFICIT.

Customs Returns, However, Show $12,000,000 Increase.

Washington, Nov. 1.—The treasury closed the first four months of the fiscal year with a deficit of $14,431,549, an increased deficit over that of the end of September of nearly $5,000,000, when it stood at $9,623,565. Compared with Oct. 31 a year ago, the present deficit is $7,000,000 lower.

Customs returns to the close of October this year have been $100,637,109, or more than $12,000,000 heavier than for the first four months of 1904. Internal revenue receipts have been $88,657,724 for the same period, compared with $83,500,000 heavier than last year. Total receipts for the first three months of this year have been $197,507,417, or over $10,000,000 above those of the same period last year.

Expenditures have run about $3,000,000 heavier the first four months of this year. October customs fell off more than a million and a half, compared with September, while internal revenue receipts for October led September by about a million and a half.

Swiss Change National Hymn.

It is not often that a nation changes its national hymn. The Swiss have, however, formally announced their intention of doing so and of adopting the less well known Swiss Psalm, or "Cantique Suisse," instead of the hitherto universally sung "O Monte Independent."

The reason of this change is that the latter has always been rendered to Carey's melody of "God Save the King," which is identical also with the German "Heil Dir im Siegerkranz," and the Swiss are beginning to find this sameness too confusing. Henceforward, therefore, they will change their tune to one which shall be their only, and, indeed, the melody accompanying the words, "Our new mountain hymn is sold," etc., of the "Cantique Suisse," is, if anything, more inspiring than the old one.

It is also by a true son of the Alps, one Zwysag, to whom a monument was erected on the Lake of the "Four Cantons" a few years ago. That the "late" national anthem can have had but a small part in the people's affections is proved by the way the "new" one readily accepted on all sides.—From Reynolds' Newspaper.

The building was in amouling ruins before anyone knew that it was on fire. It was located near the granite quarries and formerly was used as a boarding house, but it has been unoccupied three years. It contained a quantity of furniture. The property was valued at about $2,000 and was partly insured. The cause of the fire is not known.

Be Sober.

Says President Roosevelt "It is of incalculable consequence to the man himself that he should be sober and temperate, and it is of even more consequence to his family and his children. It is a hard and cruel fact that in this life of ours the sins of the man are often visited most heavily upon those whose welfare should be his special care."—President Roosevelt to the Miners at Wilkesbarre, Pa.

Large Profit for the Farmer.

If you knew where you could invest your money safely and get $3 for every $1 invested, wouldn't you do it? H. C. Ward of Richville, Vt., says some of the farmers in his vicinity get more than that. Here is what he says: "I have sold your Poultry Food for the last two years with good success. The farmers in this section are well pleased with the results from the use of this food. I believe that for every dollar the farmer invests in your Poultry Food he gets three dollars in return. Some of my customers even claim more than this profit from the use of this food."
